INDUSTRY PROGRAMME FAQs

How and when can I access the Festival Hub, Soho House Mumbai?

- You need an Industry Badge (Green), Filmmaker Badge (Maroon) or Gold Badge to access the Festival Hub through the days of our festival (19th - 24th October 2024).
- The Industry Programme takes place from 21st to 23rd October 2024.

How do I attend the Industry Programme?

- Go through session details on the MAMI website.
- Head over to your MyMAMI dashboard.
- RSVP for the session/s you wish to attend.
- You will receive a confirmation email for each RSVP that you will need to show for entry to the session.
- For detailed booking instructions, head to our website.

What are the next steps?

- Seating is on first-come-first-serve basis.
- Carry your festival badge and booking confirmation for entry to the session.
- Walk-ins are not guaranteed a seat, irrespective of festival accreditation.
- If a session is full, keep checking your MyMAMI dashboard in case seats open up, especially the night before the session.
- If you're unable to attend, release your seat via MyMAMI, to enable others to book.
- Arrive at Soho House Mumbai at least 15 minutes before the session starts.

INDUSTRY PROGRAMME FAQs

How do I RSVP for a session?

- Head to your MyMAMI dashboard.
- Click on My Events.
- Choose the session you would like to attend, and click on the RSVP button.
- Next, on the session page, scroll down and click on 'Accept'.
- If your seat is confirmed, you will receive a confirmation email on your registered email address, and the session box will turn green on your My Events page.
- If you have booked a seat for a session but are unable to attend, we request you to cancel your seat so another delegate may be able to attend the session. This is vital to avoid a situation of empty seats and long walk-in queues.
- To cancel a booking, go back into the session page and click on 'Reject'. The session box will turn red on your My Events page.
- If a session you wish to attend is houseful, we request you to check again later to see if any seats have opened up.
